Patricia D. Kohlmeier appointed to CSBA's Board of Directors

(Sacramento) – Patricia D. Kohlmeier, a member of the Redlands Unified School District Board of Education, was recently appointed to the board of directors of the California School Boards Association.

Kohlmeier assumes her place on the board as the newly appointed director of CSBA's Region 16, which includes Inyo and San Bernardino counties. The appointment was made by CSBA President Kerry Clegg to fill the vacancy left when Kathleen Kinley, former director of Region 16, was elected Vice President of CSBA in December. Kohlmeier has served as a representative for Region 16 on CSBA's Delegate Assembly since 2000.

"Pat's years of public service to our schools and to the children of her community make her a great addition to our board," said Scott P. Plotkin, Executive Director of CSBA. "She hit the ground running at our executive meetings earlier this month and we're looking forward to her energetic leadership on the board."

Currently, Kohlmeier is the associate director of alumni relations at the University of Redlands. She has won numerous awards for her volunteer and community work over the years from organizations such as the PTA and the United Way. She was named Woman of the Year 2000 by the Redlands chapter of Business and Professional Women. She received her bachelor's degree in ornamental horticulture from California State Polytechnic University, Pomona.
