

CSBA Fast Facts and Figures

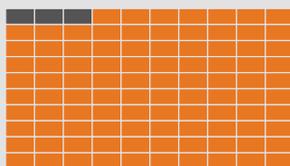

2022–23 CSBA Membership

964
Members

Local educational agencies (school districts, county offices of education and regional occupational centers/programs) are members of CSBA

97%
Membership Rate

99.9%
Represented

PreK-12 public school students represented by CSBA member LEAs

California K-12 Public Education¹

939

PreK-12 Public School Districts in 2022–23

- » This figure does not include county offices of education, state board of education charters, statewide benefit charter, state special schools or non-school locations
- » There are 6 common administration districts statewide (an elementary school district and a high school district governed by the same elected board)

¹Source: California Department of Education

58

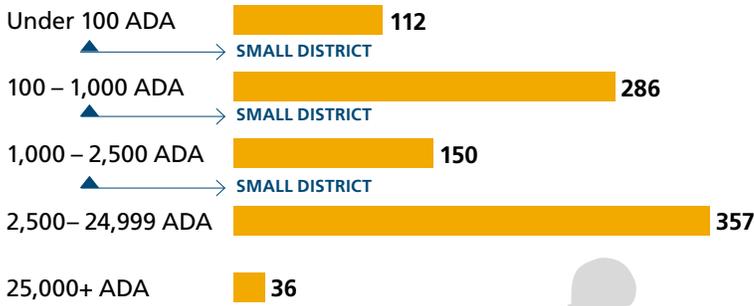

County Offices of Education

This includes 7 joint county offices and school districts: Alpine, Amador, Del Norte, Mariposa, Plumas, San Francisco and Sierra counties

(These 7 are also reflected in the total of 939 school districts)

Sizes of K-12 School Districts (based on average daily attendance)

Types of K-12 School Districts

53%

Of California school board members serve on the board of a small school district

206

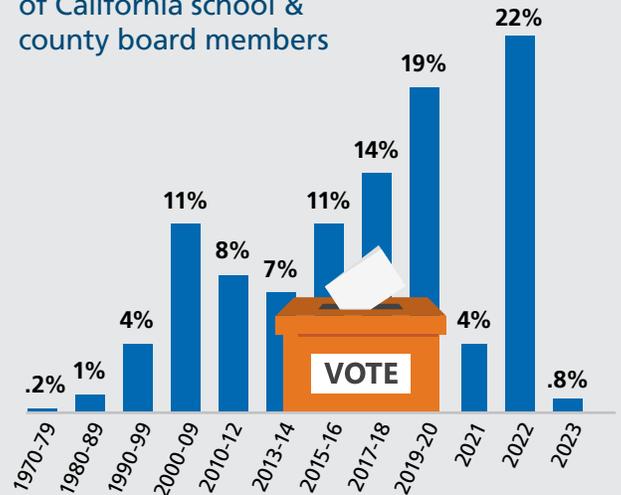

Public K-12 districts have only one school

California K-12 Public School Governance²

4,976 Public school district and county board of education seats statewide

Original election or appointment of California school & county board members

School and county governing board sizes

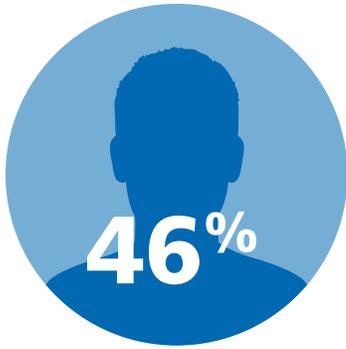

27% of current school and county board members were elected or appointed between 2021 and 2023

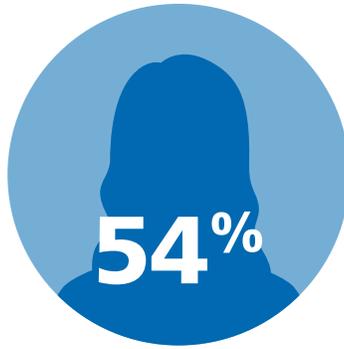

²Source: CSBA Database

Governing Board Member Demographics

male female

88% sample size of statewide board members; remaining 12% "Decline to state" or data not provided

61% sample size of statewide board members; remaining 39% "Decline to state" or data not provided*

Did you know...?

61%

of current school and county trustees have either children or grandchildren currently attending California public schools.

73%

of current trustees have achieved a college degree or graduate degree.

67%

of trustees are currently employed full-time or part-time.

39%

of trustees were previously employed by a school district or county office of education, and 15% of trustees currently are.

Source: CSBA 2022–23 member census

